

ARS anchors provide a permanent tie of point during and after construction. Ideal for service personnel performing maintenance or repairs. And as shown here, are less visible than plumbing and venting fixtures.

