

Introduction to Fall Protection

We offer our dealers a variety of sales displays designs containing of the top-rated products for the industry. These are value-oriented, fast turning, single package products designed to catch the attention of your customers. Highlights:

1. Top sales products for your industry are included in the display.
2. Prepaid freight with no minimums on products shipped ground in the Continental United States makes restocking this display easy.
3. Easy setup of the sales display with product visible for the customers to see what they are purchasing.
4. By having safety equipment readily available for purchase in your store, your customers can be proactive in fall protection.
5. Super Anchor Safety 200-page catalog showcases our full line of fall protection products and are available at no cost. All products in the catalog can be ordered and direct shipped to your customer.
6. Fall protection kits "Safety Buckets" are the one product sold in almost all material supply stores. What makes our kits the best seller in the industry? Three primary ingredients high quality components, instruction manuals and cost. We offer replacement parts for all products sold in a kit.

MAX-V 50'
Fall Protection Kit

Lumber Supply Sales Display

FREE
2020 Catalogs
to give to your customers

101