

ARS anchors provide a permanent tie off point during and after construction. Ideal for service personnel performing maintenance or repairs. As shown here, the anchors are less visible than plumbing and venting fixtures.

